REHABILITATION OF OFFENDERS

Under the terms of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, persons working/volunteering with children, the disabled or elderly are required to disclose all previous convictions which for other purposes would be defined as "spent". Failure to disclose such convictions could result in the ending of a voluntary arrangement with the River Thames Boat Project. A criminal record and its disclosure does not debar from volunteering and all information will be treated as confidential.

Please give below details of any convictions, bind overs, orders or cautions. If none please state none.

PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AND VULNERABLE ADULTS

Successful applicants will be required to undergo a Criminal Records Bureau Disclosure and agree to abide with the Boat Project's Child and Vulnerable Adult Protection Policy.

HEALTH AND SAFETY AT WORK ACT

All volunteers have the same rights and responsibilities as workers and employees under the terms of the Act, and will be required to read the Boat Project's Health & Safety Policy and agree to abide by it.

DECLARATION OF CONFIDENTIALITY

I understand the implications and understand that I may receive information of a confidential nature. I agree not to disclose such information to unauthorised persons during my voluntary work for the River Thames Boat Project and after my volunteering ends.
